

Richard A. Cason, A/P, IA

Aircraft and Powerplant Consultant
System Engineering And Laboratories (SEAL)

QUALIFICATIONS

Over 40 years of service in the repair and maintenance of aircraft, with a record of outstanding achievement and professional advancement in critical environments.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

U. S. AIR FORCE

Launch and recovery of 120 Airlift
Command Aircraft in support of Operation Desert Shield
Damaged Aircraft Recovery
Accident Investigation Board at
F-16C crash site

EDUCATION

U. S. Air Force

Community College of the Air Force
Major: Aircraft Systems Maintenance Technology
Advanced Aircraft Maintenance Laboratory
Manual Flight Control System Rigging
Aircraft Maintenance Specialist School
Numerous Other Schools

CERTIFICATIONS

DOT/FAA Air Frame/Powerplant
Rated. Inspection Authorization and Repairmen Certificate

EXPERIENCE

2008-Present System Engineering And Laboratories (SEAL), LaFayette, GA
2008-Present Gann Aviation: Director of Maintenance, A&P, IA
2000-2007 Carpet Capital Aviation: Director of Maintenance, A&P, IA
Cessna Citation 1's, Citation 2's. North American Saber Liner
40 and 65 jets. Maintenance on Honeywell TPE331 and Pratt and Whitney JT12A-8, JT15D-4B turbo engines.
1994-2000 Capital City Air Service: Director of Maintenance, A&P, IA
Maintained Beech, Piper, Cessna, and various other aircraft.
1978-1994 U. S. Air Force: Aircraft Maintenance Technician, Shaw Air Force Base, Sumter, SC
Inspected, installed, repaired, serviced, and modified tactical aircraft systems, components, and related aerospace equipment. Maintained aircraft forms and records, performed
Crew Chief Expediter, Flight Line Chief, and Maintenance Staff functions.